

Article Overview

LatamFiberhome and Eltecon are among the leading local fiber optic cable manufacturers and suppliers in Ecuador.

Key Manufacturers and Suppliers

LatamFiberhome Cable C. Ltda is one of the largest fiber optic cable manufacturers in Latin America, with its main office in Eloy Alfaro, Ecuador. Established in 2014, the company produces a wide range of optical fiber cables including ADSS cables, drop cables, and duct cables. LatamFiberhome employs over 100 staff and has a strong presence in the Ecuadorian market, serving both commercial and industrial clients . Eltecon is a major importer and distributor of fiber optic cables in Ecuador, with 16 years of experience in the industry. They offer a broad selection of products, including single-mode and multi-mode cables, as well as accessories and equipment for fiber optic networks. Eltecon provides technical support, fast delivery, and solutions tailored for Internet Service Providers (ISPs) across the country .

Market Overview

As of 2026, Ecuador has 23 verified fiber optic products suppliers, concentrated mainly in Pichincha, Guayas, and Chimborazo provinces. Many of these suppliers maintain a digital presence through websites, social media, and professional networks, facilitating direct contact and procurement . This network of suppliers ensures that businesses can access a variety of fiber optic solutions locally, reducing reliance on imports.

Considerations for Procurement

- o Product Range: Check whether the supplier offers the specific type of fiber optic cable required (e.g., ADSS, drop, duct, single-mode, multi-mode).
- o Technical Support: Companies like Eltecon provide expert guidance for network design and installation.
- o Delivery and Logistics: Local suppliers can offer faster delivery times and support for nationwide projects.
- o Reputation and Experience: Established companies like LatamFiberhome and Eltecon have proven track records in Ecuador's telecommunications sector. For businesses seeking fiber optic solutions in Ecuador, LatamFiberhome and Eltecon are reliable starting points, with additional options available among the 23 local suppliers for specialized needs .
