

Article Overview

Fiberglass cable trays in Malta are available from local suppliers like FBP Malta and international manufacturers such as MP Husky, offering durable, corrosion-resistant FRP systems.

Local Suppliers in Malta

FBP Malta provides a range of cable tray and mesh tray solutions suitable for electrical installations in industrial and commercial settings. Their offerings include fiberglass-reinforced plastic (FRP) trays that are lightweight, non-conductive, and resistant to corrosion, making them ideal for harsh environments .

International Manufacturers Available in Malta

MP Husky is a leading international brand specializing in fiberglass cable trays. Their FRP trays are designed for high-load applications, including offshore and industrial environments. Key features include:

- o High strength-to-weight ratio, weighing only one-third of equivalent steel trays
 - o Non-conductive and non-magnetic, reducing electrical hazards
 - o Corrosion-resistant and suitable for chemical exposure
 - o Compliance with ASTM standards for flame resistance and self-extinguishing properties
 - o Available in polyester and vinylester resin systems, with custom colors on request
- Other global suppliers can be sourced through B2B marketplaces like Tradewheel and ThomasNet, which list fiberglass cable trays suitable for import to Malta. These platforms provide options for customized sizes, load capacities, and resin types, ensuring compliance with local electrical and safety standards .

Considerations for Selection

When choosing a fiberglass cable tray in Malta, consider:

- o Load capacity and span requirements
 - o Environmental resistance, including UV, chemical, and moisture exposure
 - o Compliance with fire safety standards (ASTM E-84, Class 1 Flame Rating)
 - o Ease of installation and weight for handling
- By sourcing from reputable local suppliers like FBP Malta or international brands such as MP Husky, you can ensure a durable, safe, and cost-effective cable management solution for your projects .
