

Article Overview

Leading cable management frame manufacturers in West Asia include Adhwa Al-Rawafid Electric Industries and ElectroLink Ltd., both offering high-quality cable trays, ladders, trunking, and accessories.

Key Manufacturers

1. Adhwa Al-Rawafid Electric Industries (Saudi Arabia) Founded in 2006 in Dammam, KSA, Adhwa Al-Rawafid specializes in cable management products and accessories, including cable trays, cable runways, and trunking systems. Their products are made from corrosion-resistant materials, such as Hot Dipped Galvanized (HDG) steel, and they provide a wide range of fittings, accessories, and hardware to suit industrial and commercial applications. The company is ISO 9001-2015 certified, ensuring quality management standards for their manufacturing processes and products . 2. ElectroLink Ltd. (Saudi Arabia) Established in 1988, ElectroLink manufactures cable trays, cable ladders, cable trunking, and Linkstrut metal framing systems. They focus on industrial and commercial applications, providing support for electrical, mechanical, instrumentation, civil, and telecommunication equipment. ElectroLink emphasizes high-quality raw materials, strict quality control, and continuous product development, and they are expanding toward ISO 9000 accreditation to meet international standards .

Regional Presence and Services

Both companies serve major projects across Saudi Arabia and the Middle East, offering customized solutions, technical support, and installation guidance. Their products are suitable for industrial plants, commercial buildings, and infrastructure projects, ensuring compliance with regional and international standards.

Additional Considerations

- o Material and corrosion resistance: HDG steel and other corrosion-free materials are commonly used to withstand harsh environments.
- o Product range: Includes cable trays, ladders, trunking, metal framing, and accessories for flexible installation.
- o Certifications: ISO 9001-2015 and ongoing ISO 9000 accreditation ensure quality and reliability.
- o Project support: Both manufacturers provide technical consulting, planning, and installation support for large-scale projects. For sourcing cable management frames in West Asia, Adhwa Al-Rawafid Electric Industries and ElectroLink Ltd. are among the most established and reliable manufacturers, offering comprehensive product lines and certified quality standards .
